

VISI

Vancouver International Song Institute

Volunteer Opportunities Institute and Festival 4 – 23 June 2010

- Gain exposure to world-class musicians, artists, pedagogues
- Improve your job opportunities
- Use your specific skills and develop new ones

The Vancouver International Song Institute needs you for the short-term and mid-term!! We have different areas that need your skills preparing for and during our June Institute and SongFire Festival.

- Registration at door (UBC)
- Box office at door (at UBC and other concert Venues)
- Writing, editing
- Managing concession
- Drivers for faculty/performers
- AV and IT
- General clerical

For information and to volunteer contact Stan at: 604-828-2095 or VISI2010volunteers@gmail.com

The Vancouver International Song Institute:

- “One of the best additions to the Vancouver summer music scene in many a year” - The Vancouver Sun
- Is an educational, research, and performing arts organization
- The Song Institute produces two annual events in June
- Collaborates and undertakes research on music therapy, healthcare, cross cultural studies, education, cognition, neuroscience and more
- Is a registered non-profit charity

The VISI Mandate:

- To provide a centre for research into Song as a human phenomenon
- To bring greater prominence to the genre of Song
- To stage educational and performance events focusing on Song
- To provide performance opportunities for established and emerging artists

For information and to volunteer contact Stan at 604-828-2095 or VISI2010volunteers@gmail.com